HOPE CONTINUES

We are starting a new year, 2021, after the most eventful year most of us have ever had in 2020; a lot of the things that happened in 2020 were not good things. We are still living with the COVID pandemic and the changes that impact our everyday lives. A lot of us still must work from home and deal with COVID at colleges or schools. We are still changing the way we attend church and Sunday School. We have not been able to hold Emmaus walks or attend gatherings in person.

However, we just celebrated the birth of Jesus on Christmas Day and we were reminded of the fulfillment of promises made by God. We were reminded of the love of God that he sent his son to earth for us. We were reminded that he works all things together to execute his plan no matter how impossible the things that have happened seem to us. A star that the shepherds saw at the right time that they chose to follow, kings sent on a quest to find the baby Jesus, and a baby born in Bethlehem in a manger with animals all around in the cave or as it has been told in the stable. God prophesied through Isaiah 7:14 that a virgin woman will give birth to God's son and he will be called Immanuel (God With Us). God prophesied through Isaiah 9:6 that Jesus Christ would come as a baby and that he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. God prophesied through Micah 5:2 that Jesus will be born in Bethlehem. These and many more prophecies were fulfilled by Jesus through his life including John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

We need to be reminded that in this world of SIN, that spouses, families, work mates, work companies, and government may hurt us or not be there when we need them; but God will always be there to provide the LOVE that we need in any situation. We need to be reminded that the difficulties of life and SIN in the world are conquered by God. That Jesus died for our SINS and that God is looking out for us. You need to remember that God provided his Son to cover our SINS to give us HOPE in the world so that we know that we can survive this world and join him in Heaven. Continue with the HOPE that he will get us through the problems that we have now in our lives. GOD is in CONTROL and just as we have been reminded of the prophecies in the Old Testament that were fulfilled in the New Testament by the birth of Jesus, he is continuing to give us HOPE for the future. Remember Matthew 28:19-20 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

We are still requesting the Fourth Day community to send TESTIMONIES of how the Walk to Emmaus has changed their life to put on a TESTIMONY page on the GAEC website. Remember that Paul stated in 2Timothy 1:8 "So do not be ashamed to TESTIFY about our Lord." You can check the last three WalkTalk editions on the GAEC website for Board member testimonies to give you an idea of what the article might look like (<https://www.austinemmaus.org/testimonials/>).

Send a written or video TESTIMONY to communications@austinemmaus.org. Start off the new year now by sharing and make a difference in the GAEC community on the new website. We have not received many yet, so step out in faith and be changed by the experience!

With the HOPE of Jesus, we continue to step forward one day at a time. Thank you for all you are doing to keep HOPE alive! Stay connected to each other, your Church, and God. Continued blessings on you and all those around you.

Our Second Live Stream Gathering at Hope Presbyterian Church

We had our second live stream gathering on Saturday November 21, 2020 at Hope Presbyterian Church. There were only a few people at Hope Presbyterian to facilitate the live streaming. We had 2 musicians and 2 singers welcome us with 3 songs to start the live streaming. I then discussed the announcements and read the Board Officers names and their roles. We followed with the worship service with 3 more songs. Our Fourth Day speaker was Rick Seifert who provided an uplifting talk. We had an offering for the few people at Hope Presbyterian and reminded everyone that you can also participate in the offering by sending a check to our treasurer:

Austin Emmaus
12005 Black Angus Dr.
Austin, Tx 78727

We had a joint communion led by Pastor Sylvester Chase for the few present and for those at home that had their own communion elements, so we could have communion together at the same time.

We had 132 different devices join in the live stream gathering on November 21 by YouTube which in some cases had more than one person in the room viewing the live stream. That is a lot more views by people then we had been having by in person attendees at gatherings in November before Covid!! November is always a very busy month for folks. Thank You again GAEC Fourth Day for spreading the link and notification of the live stream to people that you knew have not attended a gathering for a long time. Great Job GAEC Fourth Day!!!!!!

The live stream was a way for us to worship together and feel connected to the Austin Fourth Day Community and God. For those who did not get a chance to see the live steam yet, you can still view it on the following YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vLK9GsG6TOY>. The gathering starts at the 2:28 minute point so you can drag the red circle to that time and the video will start. It still is a quite different feeling to speak to a very empty sanctuary! We learned a few things from the first live stream, and we continue to improve the live streams each time. The next live stream is at Pflugerville First UMC on Saturday January 9, 2021 at 6:15pm. The format will be the same as the Hope Presbyterian gathering.

The link will be by YouTube https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC29oL_NPuyr2YtUxYIY_WiA and Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/pflugervilleumc/>. We look forward to you attending the Pflugerville First UMC gathering Saturday, January 9th at 6:15pm.

With the hope of Jesus, we continue to step forward one day at a time. Thank you for all you are doing to keep hope alive, and continued blessings on you and all those around you.

GIVING THANKS 2020

As I write this, Thanksgiving has passed, but not the leftovers. Lee and I will be having turkey and dressing tonight as we work our way through the Tupperware in the fridge.

Speaking of Thanksgiving, this year it has definitely been different, but it is still a time to give thanks. My wife and I are healthy, I get tested weekly for Covid-19 in order to visit my Mom at the skilled nursing center where she lives, and our extended family is also healthy. So, I give thanks to God for these blessings.

Another blessing is that I was able to retire this year, and even with the pandemic and the lock-downs in place, I have been able to start spending limited time, twice a week, with my Mom again.

When we are together, we sit and talk, and mostly we reminisce about what she calls “the old days”. We talk about my Dad and how much she misses him, and we talk about growing up in the Crestview neighborhood, which is where my spiritual journey began.

To quote the great Chinese philosopher Lao-Tzu, “A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step”. Well, my journey to where I am today started at Crestview UMC. My parents were charter members of the church and for the majority of my early life, my fondest memories were centered on the church. I attended Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, Boy Scouts, church bazaars, pancake dinners; you name it and if it involved church I was there. It was a life rooted in Christian ideals and principles; preparing me for life. That was my life up through high school, and then I moved away to attend college. Like the Prodigal Son, I left home to experience all that life had to offer; marriage, family, and several career changes.

Twenty plus years ago I made a final change in companies and found myself in a small company where 5 of my 15 coworkers had been on a Walk to Emmaus. Now I had heard snippets in conversations at church about a Walk to Emmaus but I really didn’t have any idea what it was about. But those that I could identify as having been on a Walk all seemed to exhibit a certain “presence” or “attitude” that I also wanted to possess. My supervisor came to me one day and told me that when I was ready, he wanted to sponsor me. Well, the time finally came when I felt a need to make that journey and I asked him to sponsor me. That was all I needed to say. He did the rest.

And what a powerful experience it was. It was the best walk ever. But I would not say I had a “mountaintop” experience or found myself suddenly being filled with the Holy Spirit. I did feel a weight, a great weight, had been removed that I had been carrying.

The weight I had been carrying concerned the death of my Dad. He had shown his love for me all my life, even during the times I acted just like the Prodigal Son. Every time I came back from whatever adventure I had been on, squandering time and money, he welcomed me with open arms. After his passing I missed him deeply, but I couldn’t say that I had truly mourned his passing. That had me questioning myself and if I had truly loved my Dad as much as he loved me.

As I said, when I went on my Walk I didn’t have any expectations as to what was about to happen, I just knew that I would be open to the moment. Over the course of those three days through the bond that formed with the men at my table, I found that love for my Dad that I thought was missing. Through my renewed relationship with God and the knowledge in the security of his love for me, I released that weight I had been carrying since my Dad’s death. I no longer questioned myself, my love for my Dad was there! His passing had just been so unexpected that I had been numb from his loss. But strengthened through my renewed relationship with God, I was able to find that missing love; no longer was I lost, I was found.

Kairos Prison Ministries

Kairos Prison Ministry

Kairos Prison Ministry is a lay-led, interdenominational Christian ministry in which volunteers bring Christ's love and forgiveness to prisoners and their families. The word Kairos is a Greek word meaning in "God's Special Time" or in the "Fullness of Time," indicating an opportunity for participants to reconsider their life choices. Kairos Weekends are typically held in the June/July and December/January time frame at the Ferguson Unit near Huntsville, Texas.

There are several ways you can participate in a Kairos weekend. One of them is by baking cookies.

What I learned about Me in 2020

Happy New Year! I hope God blesses you even more than he did in 2020.

At the start of a new year, we reflect on the past year. My reflection on the year 2020 is that it is not as bad as people make it. However, it was a test of our faith! I know match.com says 2020 is a perfect match for Satan in their commercials, but 2020 made my faith stronger.

The COVID issues of 2020 brought about the start of micro-ministries. You know that little thing “The Changing Our World” talk asked us to do. One of my micro-ministries is taking food to three older ladies. On Sunday they know they have a good meal.

Another micro-ministry is the check in or wellness check. I check in on members of my church and members of the Emmaus Community. The quick chat lets people know that someone is thinking about them. Some calls could be considered a reunion group meeting as we talk about life. I bet there is that couple you have shared a pew with most Sundays, that you could call and brighten their day. What micro-ministries have you started? The ones we start in 2021 will make it a better year for the world.

I can ramble on about micro-ministries, but 2020 has brought families closer together. That could be a micro-ministry! God and Gin Rummy or Monopoly or your family’s thing can make 2021 a great year.

Once again, I pray that God bless you with more of his love in 2021. I know I said more prayers in 2020 than any other year until 2021 because I am praying harder for you!

May God bless you!

“The Real” Melvin Chambers.
GAEC Upper Room Representative
